Colorado's Strategic Action Planning Group on Aging invites service providers, community organizers, advocates, and older Coloradans to join us and share your experiences with aging in your communities. As we continue to respond to COVID-19, we hope to learn about your community-based efforts and individual experiences in order to better support older Coloradans, their families, and our communities across the state.

We cherish our Colorado lifestyle and believe that all Coloradans should have the chance to age, with dignity, while staying in the communities they call home.
